RIVO

These exclusive washbasins crafted from brushed stainless steel combine timeless aesthetics with modern elegance. The finely worked surface gives each basin a distinctive texture that subtly captures and reflects light. From every angle, the effect changes—alive like sunlight dancing on moving water.

The metallic surfaces appear dynamic and profound, playing with light and space to create striking accents in contemporary bathroom design. Yet, the overall impression remains balanced: noble, powerful, and at the same time light—a nearly weightless presence.

Rivo stands for durability and top-tier quality, merging functional strength with a unique surface aesthetic—creating wash areas that are not just used, but truly experienced. A statement for those who rethink bathroom architecture—purist, high-quality, vibrant.
